2784-302

The opposite of a quiet design but still not intrusive. The base is a chestnut that nature could not have composed more beautifully. Distinctive areas increase the recognition of this beautiful image. Whole flowers, structured and brushed in alternation with distinctive stripes and core areas. The eye feels caressed and touched. Nothing imposes itself here and yet strong in character and independent. This design was developed with a synchronized pore that underscores and emphasizes the natural effect.
